

BY THE GLASS

WHITE WINE

Senso Trebbiano

Bottle £24 | 175ml £5.50 | 250ml £8

A fresh and zesty white hailing from the Rubicone IGT in Emilia Romagna. This wine is light and dry on the palate with notes of green apples, white flowers, pears and citrus combined with a crisp and refreshing acidity.

Fedele Bianco

Bottle £27 | 175ml £6.50 | 250ml £9

Lively everyday dry white from Sicily bursting with tropical fruit and citrus aromas. With its crisp acidity and luscious fresh fruit flavours, this a real go-to wine, fruity enough to sip on its own yet brisk enough to pair with all sorts of foods.

Altana Sauvignon Blanc

Bottle £33 | 175ml £7.50 | 250ml £11

This lovely soft and pale yellow wine has a subtle aroma of lime and ripe stone fruits, light in body it leaves refreshing citrus flavours in the finish.

Miopasso Pinot Grigio

Bottle £33 | 175ml £7.50 | 250ml £11

With its warmer climate, Sicily produces a much riper style of Pinot Grigio with bigger flavours, more colour and a honeyed finish. This is a genuine taste of Italy.

Corte dei Moro Grillo

Bottle £33 | 175ml £7.50 | 250ml £11

Ripe and spicy with hints of ginger, crisp citrus with flavours of honey and stone fruit. Appealing texture and minerality on the finish with bright acidity.

Alasia Gavi

Bottle £39 | 175ml £8.50 | 250ml £13

Appealing aromas of citrus fruit and white flower with a touch of white spice. The palate has more citrus characters with hints of orchard and stone fruits. Crisp, refreshing acidity balances underlying minerality.

RED WINE

Botter Sangiovese

Bottle £24 | 175ml £5.50 | 250ml £8

A fruity and easy drinking Sangiovese from the Rubicone IGT of Emilia Romagna in northern Italy. Bursting full of red cherries, plums and soft berry flavours which combine with soft tannins and a medium acidity to leave a fresh and juicy impression on the palate.

Bottle £55

Fine and persistent, Floreal and fruity, well orchestrated, delicate medium dry finish.

SPARKLING
METODO
CLASSICO
(Traditional Method)

12 Mosnel Franciacorta DOCG Brut

Bottle £60

Since 1979, the harmonious interrelationship of our Chardonnay, Pinot Bianco, and Pinot Noir grapes at every harvest guides the assembling of the cuvée that constitutes the foundation of our house style. At least 24 months sur lie allows this Brut to reach a perfect stylistic equilibrium, after which it is ready to be disgorged. It boasts a subtle white-gold hue, and a slender, silky bead of pin-point bubbles. A refined aromatic medley of elderflower and hawthorn blossom nuances crisp Mediterranean citrus, pear and apple, apricot and melon, along with subtle impressions of wild herbs and almonds. Crisp fruit and a tangy acidity are gloriously abundant in the mouth, concluding with a finish that is long-lingering, elegant, and beautifully balanced.

13 Mosnel Franciacorta DOCG Rosé Brut

Bottle £60

A deeply-fragrant rosé whose crisp, graceful Chardonnay finds its delicious complement in the fruit-rich depth of Pinot Noir and the supple roundedness of Pinot Blanc. All the grapes are gently pressed, and the wine develops its harmonious character over more than 24 months of maturation sur lie. Its gold-edged, powder-pink hue hints at freshpicked redcurrants and cherries on the nose, which then develop into ultra-crisp apricot and wild strawberry, peony petals and blood oranges, plus a subtle vein of fresh almond and cotton candy. It opens generous, warm, and full in the mouth, with energy-laden impressions of succulent, freshpicked pomegranate and red apple, a complex enlivened by a slender yet tangy sapidity.

14 Mosnel Franciacorta DOCG Saten (Blanc de Blanc)

Bottle £70

A benchmark Satén with the spotlight on Chardonnay, whose overall style, in line with tradition, reflects the particular character of each vintage year. That stylistic key unlocks the aromatic treasures of this Franciacorta, following its minimum of 36 month's maturation in the cellar. Its brilliant gold hue and dense, creamy bead of pin-point bubbles are every bit as refined as its intense, clean-edged aromatics. Smooth, seductive impressions of bergamot, jasmine, and calycanthus duet with subtly pungent star anise and white pepper, all backgrounded by reassuringly classic fruit: peach and lychee, with a touch of candied almond and butter-crusted pastry. The palate develops at a majestic, elegant pace, effortlessly seducing with an alternation of mint and dried fruit and nuts, plus a grain or two of sea salt animating a stylish, longlingering finish.

15 Veuve Clicquot

Bottle £75

A famous Champagne for all the right reasons – a richer more flavoursome fizz with layers of baked apple fruit and a nice touch of cream on the finish.

16 Ruinart Brut

Bottle £80

Elegant and well-structured with a fine persistent mousse. Citrus fruit and nutty notes with hints of cream and a long dry finish. Ruinart is the earliest-established Champagne house.

17 Dom Perignon

Bottle £185

The delicate aromas and flavours of Dom Perignon really develop in the glass when savoured slowly, as floral zesty notes give way to complex hazelnut brioche and cream.

SUPERIORE

Aged in barriques and tonnaux for 24 months. Ruby red intense colour with intense typical of Sangiovese, notes of forest fruit and pleasant spiciness.

31 San Cassiano, Amarone della Valpolicella DOCG
Bottle £90

About the name "Marne 180": marne means marl, the variety of soil on which we've planted our vineyards; 180 are the degrees of exposure of our vineyards, from south-west to south-east. This wine is made from grapes harvested in various vineyards located on hills in the Valpolicella area (Mezzane and Tregnago hills). Different sources and different grape varieties are important to obtain a well-balanced wine with the fine structure that only a few single areas in the Valpolicella zone can provide.

Strong ruby red. Clear and transparent. Notes of vanilla and ethereal airs depending on the period of aging in the barrel; notes of sweet fruits such as currants, blueberries, cherries depending on the varieties of grapes. With a velvety, raisiny character combined with the structure and typical stylish bitterness to give it good balance. It has an enduring and persistent flavour.

32 Tenuta Maso Corno, Santa Maria Pinot Nero Riserva
Bottle £99

SantaMaria Maso Corno presents a ruby red colour and releases ample aromas, revealing a refined and richly spiced bouquet. Its ethereal complexity blends with fruity overtones. The wine presents a well defined body with a balanced weight on the palate and is sustained by a subtle and embracing tannin impression. Its alcoholic richness and mild ripening balance a perceptible freshness. Refinement and elegance accompany the strong notes conferred to the wine by the polyphenolic grape fractions to obtain a harmonious set of aromatic, visual and tasting sensations.

33 Pergolaia IGT
Bottle £149

Following the Tuscan tradition, Sangiovese dominates in this blend, shaping Pergolaia into a wine of intense bouquet and seductive body with soft tannins and superb depth. Caiarossa is a Biodynamic producer of natural wines of great elegance and fame. Smooth and soft, supple tannins with delicious rich fruit and a brilliant long finish. The wine incorporates beautifully the aged flavours of tobacco and leather.
